RE: SETPD Summit
Date: 7/6/09

Just a reminder the July 20th SETPD Summit is right around the corner. I've attached an updated registration list for your information. Please look it over and contact your districts who have not yet registered. NOTE: Encourage your districts to bring up to 5 members of their SETPD leadership team.

I've pasted below the original summit announcement email for your information. Thanks for your support with this exciting event.

(this communication was sent by CDE)

The California Department of Education and the California Technical Assistance Center are pleased to announce a SETPD Summit on July 20, 2009, in Sacramento. The summit will feature keynote speaker, Diane Haager, Ph.D., California State University, Los Angeles. Dr. Haager's presentation, "Cooking with the Right Ingredients: Essential Components of Special Education Reading Instruction", will open the summit followed by four special focus breakout sessions. There is no fee to attend this summit. To download a flyer and register for the SETPD Summit, go to www.calread.net/lea_sessions/
